What is Empty Bowls?

Empty Bowls is a nationwide fundraiser held at various times of the year. Organizations create ceramic bowls, and then serve a simple meal of bread and soup. Guests at the fund raising dinner choose a bowl to use for their meal; the bowl also serves as reminders of how there are always Empty Bowls throughout the world. Proceeds from the dinner will help a hunger fighting organization.

The main idea of Empty Bowls is to educate people how hunger is everywhere even in the areas where we live and in the process help a local organization.

Proceeds benefit LifeBoat and the Food Bank of the Rockies
