

Hinkley High Alumni Scholarship

The Hinkley Alumni Scholarship has been established this year by several past graduates who now work in the field of higher education. This scholarship will afford one or more students the opportunity to start their post-secondary journey by helping to pay for college tuition, books, or any of the many fees associated with taking college classes.

There is no minimum GPA requirement however applicants must be accepted at an accredited college/ university/ technical school in order to be eligible. Applicants should write a personal essay describing themselves their plans for college or training after high school including their chosen major. This essay should also describe their financial need. In addition applicants must complete an application criteria form and submit two letters of recommendation with an unofficial transcript.
