

AURORA PUBLIC SCHOOL'S GLOBAL COMMUNITY
PRESENTS

HOPE, EDUCATION AND SUCCESS

A SERIES OF PANEL DISCUSSIONS DESIGNED TO MEET THE NEEDS OF OUR DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2007

At Aurora Central High School
11700 E. 11th Ave.
Aurora, CO 80010
5:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

HISPANIC LEADERS SHARING THEIR SUCCESS STORIES

PURPOSE:

Strengthen collaboration with parents to increase learning for all children
Expand and strengthen community involvement and partnerships to embrace schools
Increase communication cooperation with key local, state and national groups and organizations

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Dr. Bárbara Medina, English Language Acquisition, Colorado Department of Education
Mr. Rodolfo José Cárdenas, Senior News Anchor and Producer for Univision

PANELISTS:

Clara Pérez Méndez, President of Puentes Culturales
Iván Durán, Director of Instructional Technology for Aurora Public Schools
Belén Escalante, 2005 Aurora Central High School Grad attending Rocky Mountain College of Art and Design
María Elena Thomas, Principal Elkhart Elementary School, Aurora Public Schools
Armando Ramírez, University Professors and Radio Disc Jockey

Moderator:

Ms. Georgia Durán

This year's theme:

Helping Parents Become Advocates for all Children

Division of School Services; Equity, Diversity Education
Migrant Education Forum is Coming September 25 and 26, October 2 and 3 to your neighborhood school
Fall Institute Coming October 6, 2007

Staff Development Credit is available for attending

DVD video recording of this evening's events will be available for $5.00

Food, clowns and singing for your entertainment